

Physical Therapy Exercises

After your surgery, it will be important to perform the following knee exercises as specified by your surgeon or Highland physical therapist. It will be normal to experience some pain or discomfort